

WHO KISSED GIRL? POLICEMAN OR MAN CLUBBED?

Each Accuses the Other, and Magistrate Postpones Hearing to Learn Truth.

Magistrate Breen, in the Night Court, expects to decide to-night a question of veracity as between Robert Broszel, a waiter of No. 125 East Tenth street and Policeman Harry J. Johnson, of the Fifth street station.

Broszel has the backing of five letter-carriers from sub-station D, Fourth avenue and Tenth street, who substantiate his charge that Johnson clubbed him unmercifully and arrested him without provocation after he had witnessed Johnson sitting on the front stoop of a rooming house at No. 125 East Thirtieth street, hugging and kissing Mildred Chapin, nineteen years old, who said she lived there with her parents.

Johnson was hunting witnesses in the neighborhood of No. 125 East Thirtieth street last night to back him in his contention that Broszel jumped out of a doorway when the girl started to walk away from her stoop and attempted to hug and kiss her. Miss Chapin was the original complainant, but at the hearing last night she failed to appear.

When the case came up for hearing Wednesday Ms Chapin told Magistrate Breen the same story as related by Johnson. Broszel told his story also. Magistrate Breen was so impressed with his sincerity that he wrote a letter to Commissioner Waldo. Inspector Cahane was assigned to investigate the case, and reported to Magistrate Breen that he believed Broszel's story.

The absence of Miss Chapin last night led the court to postpone the final hearing until to-night. In the meantime a subpoena has been issued for her.

Johnson could not explain the girl's failure to appear and spent many weary hours in the district near her boarding-house last night looking for her. He says he has found a couple of women who will swear that his story is true.

The five letter-carriers, headed by Moses Wasserberg of No. 200 South First street, Williamsburg, were on hand. Wasserberg was so impressed with what he had witnessed of the arrest of Broszel that, although he had never seen him before, he went on his bail bond of $300. Johnson says the letter-carriers "it in for him."

GEISEL'S ATTACK ON PASTORS HALTS IN POST-OFFICE

1,400 Cards Assailing Those Who Had Refused to Marry
Inventor Held Up.

BERNARDSVILLE, N. J., Sept. 8.—Despite the fact that Theodore Homer Geisel of Basking Ridge, N. J., is the inventor of a process for multiplying the light-giving power of an incandescent globe, he has not as yet succeeded in inventing a plan by which he can induce any of the ministers in his neighborhood to marry him to Miss Anna Catherine Turner, who came all the way from Sioux City, Ia., with the express intention of becoming his wife. So fruitless has his search been that he now accuses Dr. Thomas A. Conover of St. Bernard's Episcopal Church of conspiring to prevent his marriage. To express his opinion Dr. Conover and ministers in general he mailed 1,400 postal cards yesterday, but they were held up by Postmaster Allen after a few had been delivered.

Geisel's brother, the Rev. Mr. Geisel, formerly of Basking Ridge, but now assistant rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, Ninth avenue and Twenty-ninth street, New York, declares his brother must not be taken too seriously.

but adds that he is likely to become spiteful when crossed.

Dr. Conover refused to marry Miss Turner and Geisel, giving as his reason that he was forbidden by the church to marry persons he did not know. Miss Turner has gone back to Sioux City, but hopes to return with identification papers.

Former Prices Were $18, $20, $22 and $25

We're hurrying these fine garments out to make room for the new winter stocks. Economical well-dressed men may select excellent clothing at a fraction of its real value. Included are:

Men's Light and Medium-weight Suits.
Men's Medium and Light-weight Overcoats, many of them Raglans. Men's Raincoats.

All of these garments will give splendid service until the snow flies, and they will be useful to many men throughout the winter. Also the men who buy them now will find them most useful next Spring and next Fall. Every garment in the collection costs more at wholesale than the price for which it can be bought today.

The Raglan Overcoats are quarter-lined with silk and hand-tailored.

The Men's Suits and Raincoats are in a very wide variety; although lots are broken, as a matter of course, there is excellent selection in sizes from 33 to 48-inch chest measure.

These garments were previously priced at $18, $20, $22 and $25 in our own stock; today they are priced at $11.75 each. Fourth Floor

The Passing of the Straw Hat

Its finish for 1911 is in sight. Few men will want to jump directly from the straw hat to the Derby—especially when the easy, light-weight, good-looking Soft Hat is in such high favor as it is this season.

Shaggy Hats are especially good. Wool or Cloth Hats, mostly with stitched brims, run them a close second. The Gimbel Hat Store presents a notable collection.

First—The handsome "Royal" Hat from Paris at $3.

Next—New English Wool Hats, also at $3.

Then—American Velour Hats, light and smart, $3.

Again—John B. Stetson Soft Hats at $3.50.

Finally—German Wool Hats at $2 that ought to be $5.

It is a good scheme to come in and see these fine Hats while the collection is unbroken. Besides, you may want to wear one tomorrow. Fourth Floor

Frills are fashionable, and here are many charming kinds of them, in plaid net, handkerchief linen, trimmed with Irish, Cluny and Fillet lace. 50c to $12.

Maintaining the Standard of Purity in CANDIES

We have been quite content to be termed "cranks" in reference to the purity of our Candies, by manufacturers and dealers. Our position as experts in candy making enables us to know all the tricks and insecurities about the production of candy. The matter of health is so important that we are not willing to take any chance, and so we have drawn a straight, strong line between the candy we will sell and the kinds we won't. The sign that hangs in our Candy Store is made true by eternal vigilance and complete knowledge about what we sell. It reads as follows:

"Gimbel Candies Are Absolutely Pure. No Glucose or Harmful Coloring Is Used"

We analyze the candies ourselves and are reinforced by frequent analysis by the State Chemist of Pennsylvania. Gimbel Candies are pure, healthful, delicious and always fresh. For tomorrow we have prepared an unusually attractive Candy Special in a box containing one compartment filled with assorted Clear Candies and Nut and Fruit-filled Hard Candies, and a third section containing Cream Wafers and Bonbons.

80c Family Box for 50c

Providing exactly the Candy desired by every member of the family and their friends. Two thousand of these boxes ready at special tables on the Main Aisle and in the Candy Store in the Subway Store, Balcony, at 50c box.

Palms, Ferns and Other Plants at Decided Savings

In most cases at one-third to one-half less than you usually pay, and in many cases at not much, if any more, than it would cost to grow these flowers in your own garden; that is, if you are not more successful than the general run of amateurs.

The Conservatory in the Subway Store has undergone quite extensive improvements, and is now in spick and span condition for the Fall trade. Some of the special offerings for Saturday are:

A $1.50 Box of Cut Flowers for 35c

Containing four dozen Cut Flowers, including Roses, Gladiolas and China Asters.

Floral Designs for table decorations or any other purpose, promptly and skillfully made up at modest prices, from $1 upward. A great variety of Palms, Ferns, Rubber Plants and Table Ferneries, for example:

A Brilliant Autumn Collection of Misses' And Girls' Apparel

At the very start of the new season, and of the school year, Gimbel is ready with a superb showing of Girls' and Young Women's Coats, Dresses and Suits, that is even better than the previous gatherings, which have made this store, in one short year, the center of interest for thousands of mothers who have young daughters to dress. It would be remarkable indeed if in a year's experience we could not find many ways to do things better.

The illustrations show three attractive new garments:

Misses' Coats at $16.50

Made in full, ample length, of heavy-weight, rough double-faced material—Oxford gray with purple, and brown mink with green. The second color shown on revers, cuffs and in the trimming of small buttons. The coat fastens with one large button, and is an admirable warm wrap for street or motor wear. Sizes 14 to 18 years. Other Misses' Coats, sizes 14 to 20 years, in many beautiful new models, at $16.50 to $30.

Misses' Suits at $25

These finely tailored Suits are of black, navy blue or cadet blue diagonal serge, handsomely lined with guaranteed satin, and richly trimmed with braid and ornaments. Revers of satin; loose plait in back. Girdle skirt, braid-trimmed to match. Sizes 14 to 20 years.

Other Misses' Suits at $16.50 to $35.

Little Girls and Big Will Fancy These School Hats

Every mother knows the sense of pride with which the school girl makes her first appearance among her classmates with a hat that she knows is becoming. Both mothers and their daughters will be delighted with this tasteful Gimbel showing of Hats for school wear, upon which we have expended much careful thought.

For the little girls there are Trimmed Hats of a splendid grade of English felt, in cardinal, white, navy blue, king's blue, brown and other colors. They are in quaint poke styles and rolling brim and Mother Goose crowns, and lots of other shapes, and jauntily trimmed with velvet, plain and plaid silk, quills, fluffy stick-up feathers, and other youthful ornaments. $1 to $3.50.

Untrimmed Felt Hoods, for young women as well as little girls, are much liked—for they are very easy to put on; just a pull-down over the head, and they are on to stay. Many styles and colorings, at $1 to $3.75.

Untrimmed Velour Hats are just as popular here as they are abroad. These are imported, in every conceivable shape and color, at $2.75 to $10.75. A little stick-up feather or a motif of chenille trims these hats very successfully; and besides you need not bother about the trimming, as our

is at your command, without charge, to trim any hat which you may buy, with its trimming materials, from our Millinery Salons. Main and Third Floors
